

The three points this morning are:

1. _____

In v1-9 we have Jesus showing us that he can and will _____ this broken world. Here it is the broken _____ of one man he fixes.

These verses help to show us that Jesus is the promised k _____ sent by God who will make the world perfect.

What is the title for our series on John? That you may _____ and have _____.

Jesus is a sure and certain _____ while putting your hope in other things will _____.

How long had the man been lame for? _____ years. Jesus is able to heal him completely and in an _____.

The healing Jesus promises us starts at the very c _____ of us and works its way all the way _____.

_____ is our internal sickness and disability.

2. _____

It seems the man who was healed did not become a _____ of Jesus. Instead he got Jesus into t _____! And yet out of undeserved _____ Jesus freely chooses to radically transform his life for the better.

How are you responding to whatever _____ things God gives you each day? Is t _____ a feature of your life?

Have you responded this week to the kindness Jesus has shown you with complaining, apathy, being ashamed of him, barely even t _____ about him? His grace is _____ enough to cover all that and more.

3. _____

On what day did Jesus heal the man? The S _____

The reason Jesus gives that it is OK for him to do this is that He is no less than _____.

He is worthy of _____ believing in him, of everlasting _____ and _____ submission.